Steps to Register for a CompTIA Testing Account

The Testing and Assessment Centers are no longer able to create new CompTIA testing accounts for students, or able to make demographic changes. Please follow the instructions below on how to make a CompTIA testing account.

If you have already taken a CompTIA certification exam, you already have an account and don't have to do these steps.

Step 1: Go to the PearsonVUE / CompTIA Testing Page: https://home.pearsonvue.com/comptia and click on the Login link on the right side of the page.
